

PROFESSOR ANOWAR HOSSAIN

Director Administration

PROFESSOR ANOWAR HOSSAIN, a valiant Freedom Fighter is a very talented and highly experienced personality who had performed his responsibilities in various capacities while he was in police department since three decades. He took retirement as DIG of SB (Special Branch) around eight years back. Then he joined in Stamford University as an Adviser and Proctor, and after over a year he joined in Gonnoshahasto Kendro as Director (General Administration). He also worked as Professor of Law at Gono University. He carried out his responsibilities as Director (Administration) in Pakiza Group. At present he is the Director (Admin) of Notundhora Assets Limited.

A valiant Freedom Fighter Professor Anowar Hossain comes of a respectable Muslim family on January 08, 1954 at a village named Dash Para, under Bauofal thana of the then Patuakhaali Sub-Division (Now Patuakhali District). His father Moullavi Hachon Ali was a very pious Muslim (a learned and wise one), and his mother's name is late Ummey Kulsum who was also a very religious woman. From the very beginning of his student life Mr. Anowar Hossain performed brilliantly and since then he did not have to look back. He cut a good figure in all examinations. He got involved in different socio-cultural organizations since school life. He founded a Library named "Dishari Sangshad" in 1974 at his own locality. When he was a student of Dhaka University he established Baufal Chatra Kallyan Society first of its kind as he was inspired by Mr. Yousuf, an Ex- Chairman of Bangladesh Krishi Bank, and Ex-Managing Director of Ansar VDP Development Bank. As Professor Anowar Hossain was a very meritorious student he did excellent result in SSC ((stood 4th in merit list) from Baufal High School under Jessore Board which was held in 1970. He also secured the 1st position in HSC (Arts with Mathematics). Later on Mr. Anowar Hossain did his Honours (1975) Masters (1976-1978) in Economics from the University of Dhaka. He also completed LLB under National University (2nd Class First) and LLM in 2010.

Being inspired with the historic speech of March 7th, 1971 of Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman, the Father of the Nation Mr. Anowar Hossain participated in the War of Liberation. In 1982 he initiated his career as ASP after completion of the competitive BCS examination. He is the man who got the highest votes and elected as PMC (President of Mess Committee) during the Foundation Training Course at PATC in Savar. He also carried out his responsibilities successfully three times in UN Peace Keeping Mission and received UN Medal for his contribution. As the only representative from Bangladesh he took part in a course titled "Information Technology in Law Enforcement" in Delhi and Hyderabad of India in 2007. Participants of different countries of the world voted him as the President and he gave the leadership successfully. He also took part as the head of delegation of a workshop like 'Threat Assessment and Intelligence Analysis' in Malaysia, seminar on "6th Regional Workshop for Police Officers Prosecutors and judges in South Asia Effectively Countering Terrorism" held at Kathmandu, Nepal.

Apart from his busy life as a high official of Police Department since then he used to keep himself busy in various social works and research based creative activities, and as of today he has been continuing this practice in such works. Due to this dedication in that field he has now turned into a very well known personality as a good writer, poet and an Islamic think tank. He also participates in TV Talk Show on regular basis. Professor Anowar Hossain F.F has to his credit a few publications which are as follows: Mrittu, (Death, 2002), Swapney Dekha, 2002, (Dream), Ekush, 2009 (21st February), 'Firey Dekha, 2008, ( Look Back), Bangabandhur Bangladesh, 2011, Basha AAndolon Thekey bangabandhu, 2012, Kaabitar Jolchobi, 2013, Constitutional Law (UK and USA) up to date Amendments with Contemporary & Case Law, May 2013, Constitutional Law of Bangladesh, 2013, Land Law Practice of Banking, Sontrah Domon Ain and Money Laundering Prevention Act, 2013, Ami Muktijodda (Bangla Academy, 2014), Amra Mujib Sena (2015 and Korona Noy Koruna (February 2022).

Before joining in Police Department Mr. Anowar Hossain used to work for a certain periods in different institutions, and few of them are Bangladesh Biman, Bangladesh Krishi bank, Department of Economics, Dhaka University, MES College in Chottogram. He had been awarded many times by different socio-cultural organizations for his outstanding contributions towards society, literature and social works as well, and few of them are: 01. Poet Club Award-2008, 02. Gold Award-2012 by Human Rights, 03. Gold Award-2013 by Human Life Development Society, 04. Gold Award-2013 by Asia Human Rights Foundation, 05. Gold Award-2013 by Dhaka Press Club. Besides he was awarded for his good deeds and better services in literary matters and teaching Affairs as well.

In personal life Professor Anowar Hossain is a father of four children. His elder daughter lives in Sydney, Australia and settled there permanently, and elder son Dr. Tanveer Ibney Anowar is currently the Chairman of Electrical and Electronics Engineering (EEE) Department of Stamford University, Dhaka. His wife Asma Anowar has played a vital role to reach in such a position which is really commendable. In true sense, she was the main source of inspiration for him. She extended all sorts of cooperation and unflinching support as well that has made him a successful one. A widely traveled personality Mr. Anowar Hossain has visited many countries across the globe so far.

